

IR35 Statement – Spring 2020

On Tuesday 17th March 2020, Chief Treasury Secretary Steve Barclay announced that the IR35 tax reforms would be delayed by one year.

We have now received confirmation of these measures being delayed until 6th April 2021 from the HMRC.

If you are a client or an individual currently contracting through VIQU, please get in touch with our team to understand what these IR35 reforms mean and how we can support you.
